DEDICATION

A MEDIEVAL CUSTOM has been revived and put to a practical use in the erection of an ultra-modern school. In the old civilization of Europe, it was common practice for the craft guilds to elect a patron saint to watch over their work and protect it from mishap. The construction of Heelan Catholic High School models a parallel in that the project was placed under the protection of Our Lady of Fatima. Under Our Lady's patronage no serious accidents occurred, despite the great task involved. In fulfillment of a promise made to her by our principal, Monsignor Kevane, we dedicate this first volume of the yearbook to Our Lady of Fatima.

Contents

THIS FIRST ISSUE of the Shield is dedicated to Our Lady of Fatima, as an expression of our gratitude for her aid in the construction of our SCHOOL. Working with Our Lady, the ADMINISTRATION molds the whole YOUTH, not only as future leaders, but also as citizens of heaven. In addition to the formal curriculum, can be found the various ACTIVITIES, which together with the SPORTS compose the entire YEAR.

THE SCHOOL

"Give Today for Their Tomorrow"

NOVEMBER 24, 1946, a cold and wintry day, one thousand men met at the Cathedral and received Christ's blessing at Benediction, celebrated by Bishop Thomas L. Noa. Immediately after, the men went out into the homes of the Catholics of Sioux City to obtain signatures as pledges that the "dream school" would come true.

THAT WAS TODAY!! The TOMORROW is now being realized. We of Heelan High wish to express our gratitude to these generous men and also to the equally generous persons who in any way made possible the advantages which we now enjoy.

STAGES IN DEVELOPMENT

Breaking of the Ground

THE BREAKING OF THE GROUND for the new Heelan High School on October 12, 1948, on the corner of 11th and Douglas Streets by the Most

Left to right: Father Francis Staber, Father Richard Sweeney, Bishop Joseph Mueller, Father Frank Greteman behind the Bishop, Monsignor Kevane, Mayor Dan J. Conley, Father C. Hayes, Father Francis Friedel behind Father Hayes, and Father Regis.

Rev. Joseph M. Mueller, Bishop of Sioux City, marked the beginning of a new era in Catholic education in the Sioux City diocese.

AT THIS TIME it was difficult for the Catholics of Sioux City to see and realize the value and importance of this project. They knew, however, that this new source of education was sorely needed. During this, the first year of its operation, it has proved itself capable of maintaining the highest standards in both scholastics and athletics.

"OPEN TO ME the gates of justice", intoned the Supreme Vicar of Christ; the door opened; another Holy Year began. Since the fourteenth century, every twenty-fifth year has been proclaimed a time of pilgrimage and special grace. The Hierarchy of the Church, as well as thousands of lay people, make an effort to visit the holy places of the Vatican. Nearly every nationality is represented at the blessed gatherings during this period of Jubilee. A special bell within the basilica tower, joining with those throughout the Catholic world, proclaimed this half century mark a Holy Year.

MOST REVEREND EDMOND J. HEELAN, D. D.

THE MOST REVEREND EDMOND J. HEELAN, second Bishop of Sioux City, first conceived the idea of a Catholic Co-educational High School. Bishop Heelan was ordained at All Hallows Seminary in Ireland. In 1919 he was consecrated Bishop of Sioux City, and held this office until his death in 1948.

MOST REVEREND THOMAS L. NOA, D. D.

THE MOST REVEREND THOMAS L. NOA, Coadjutor Bishop under Bishop Heelan, was the driving force behind the pledge campaign. Bishop Noa was ordained in December, 1916, after attending North American College in Rome. He arrived in Sioux City in June, 1946, leaving in October, 1947, after he had received an appointment to the Bishopric of Marquette.

MOST REVEREND
JOSEPH M. MUELLER, D. D.
BISHOP OF SIOUX CITY

THE MOST REVEREND JOSEPH M. MUELLER, present Bishop, carried to completion the work of his predecessors. Through his perseverance and unceasing work, Bishop Mueller has made the Heelan High School project an all-out success. A product of the Pontifical College of Columbus, Ohio, he was ordained in 1919. Before his assignment to this area in 1947, Bishop Mueller was the Pastor of the Cathedral Church, Bellville, Illinois.

ADMINISTRATION

RT. REV. MSGR. EUGENE KEVANE was born in Storm Lake, where he attended elementary and high school. Following graduation from Loras College, Dubuque, he attended the Gregorian University in Rome. He was ordained in Rome in 1938 by Most Rev. Ralph Hayes, former rector of the North American College in Rome, and now Bishop of Davenport. Following his ordination, Father Kevane was assistant pastor at St. Thomas Church in Emmetsburg, and came to the Cathedral of Epiphany in 1939 as assistant. In 1943 he enlisted in the Air Corps as a chaplain and, after three years of overseas duty was honorably discharged with the rank of major. He returned to the Cathedral Parish in 1946 and has since been occupied with the erection of the new Heelan Catholic High School.

Eugene Kevane
PRINCIPAL

DOUBLE HONORS were bestowed on Father Eugene Kevane, when Pope Pius XII elevated him to the rank of a domestic prelate with the title of Monsignor, and Most Rev. Joseph M. Mueller, Bishop of Sioux City appointed him principal of the new Heelan High School. On Wednesday, November 23, 1949, Msgr. Kevane was invested in the purple robes of a domestic prelate by his Excellency, Bishop Joseph M. Mueller. In the person of Msgr. Kevane, the Holy Father gave thanks to all the priests and people of Sioux City for laying the foundations of Heelan High School. To recognize the splendid work and generosity of these people, Rome honored one who helped to inspire and guide their good will, charity, and sacrifice in a noble cause. This was Rome's way of saying "thank you".

"I am the Good Shepherd . . . As the Father sent Me, so I send you."

With these words, Christ our Lord gave us our pastors, the shepherds of the ten parish churches of Sioux City.

And as a most important part of their pastoral love and care for the souls of us, their young people, our pastors have cooperated to bring Heelan Catholic High School into reality.

It is their parish school, and we of Heelan High are their student body and their faculty. We pledge to them our loyalty as students now and as parishioners in the years to come.

Friday Morning Chapel Hour

Highlighting all the hours of the week, every week of the schoolyear, is the 'Cathedral Hour' from 8:45 to 9:45 each Friday morning for the hundreds of students of Heelan High. This hour, a kind of laboratory period for the religion classes, may be said to replace the regular book work in such way so as to integrate the secular phase of our education with that of the spiritual. The clergy of the faculty alternate offering the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and in hearing confessions. Each week a pastor of one of the city parishes addresses the student congregation upon one of a series of selective sermons.

CATHOLIC CRUSADER HIGH

Second Row: Jacquelyn Ecker, Doris Hoffman.
Third Row: Bill Isenberger, Chet Belknap, Phil Holland, John Rickwa, Don Cimpl.

With a unique system of rotating editorship, the staff of the Crusader is composed of seniors and juniors who work in journalism. The four editors this year were all senior girls: Barbara Feldhacker, Alanna Johnstone, Leona Hessen, and Jacquelyn Ecker.

Staff for the 1950 Shield

Art Editor Flood

Many were the harassing hours happily spent by the 1950 staff in producing this First Heelan High Annual . . . THE SHIELD. The students on the staff were recommended by their various teachers, and directed by Father Behrens, publication advisor.

Faithful to the last deadline . . . to the last page of paste-ups were Editor Stroup, Artist Flood, Copy Editor Feldhacker, Photographers McKelvey and Jackson, Business Manager Belknap, Division Editors Ecker, McGowan, Cimpl, Uhing and other assistants, Desy, Keller, Cody, Gentleman, Brault, Moran, Sullivan and Heenan.

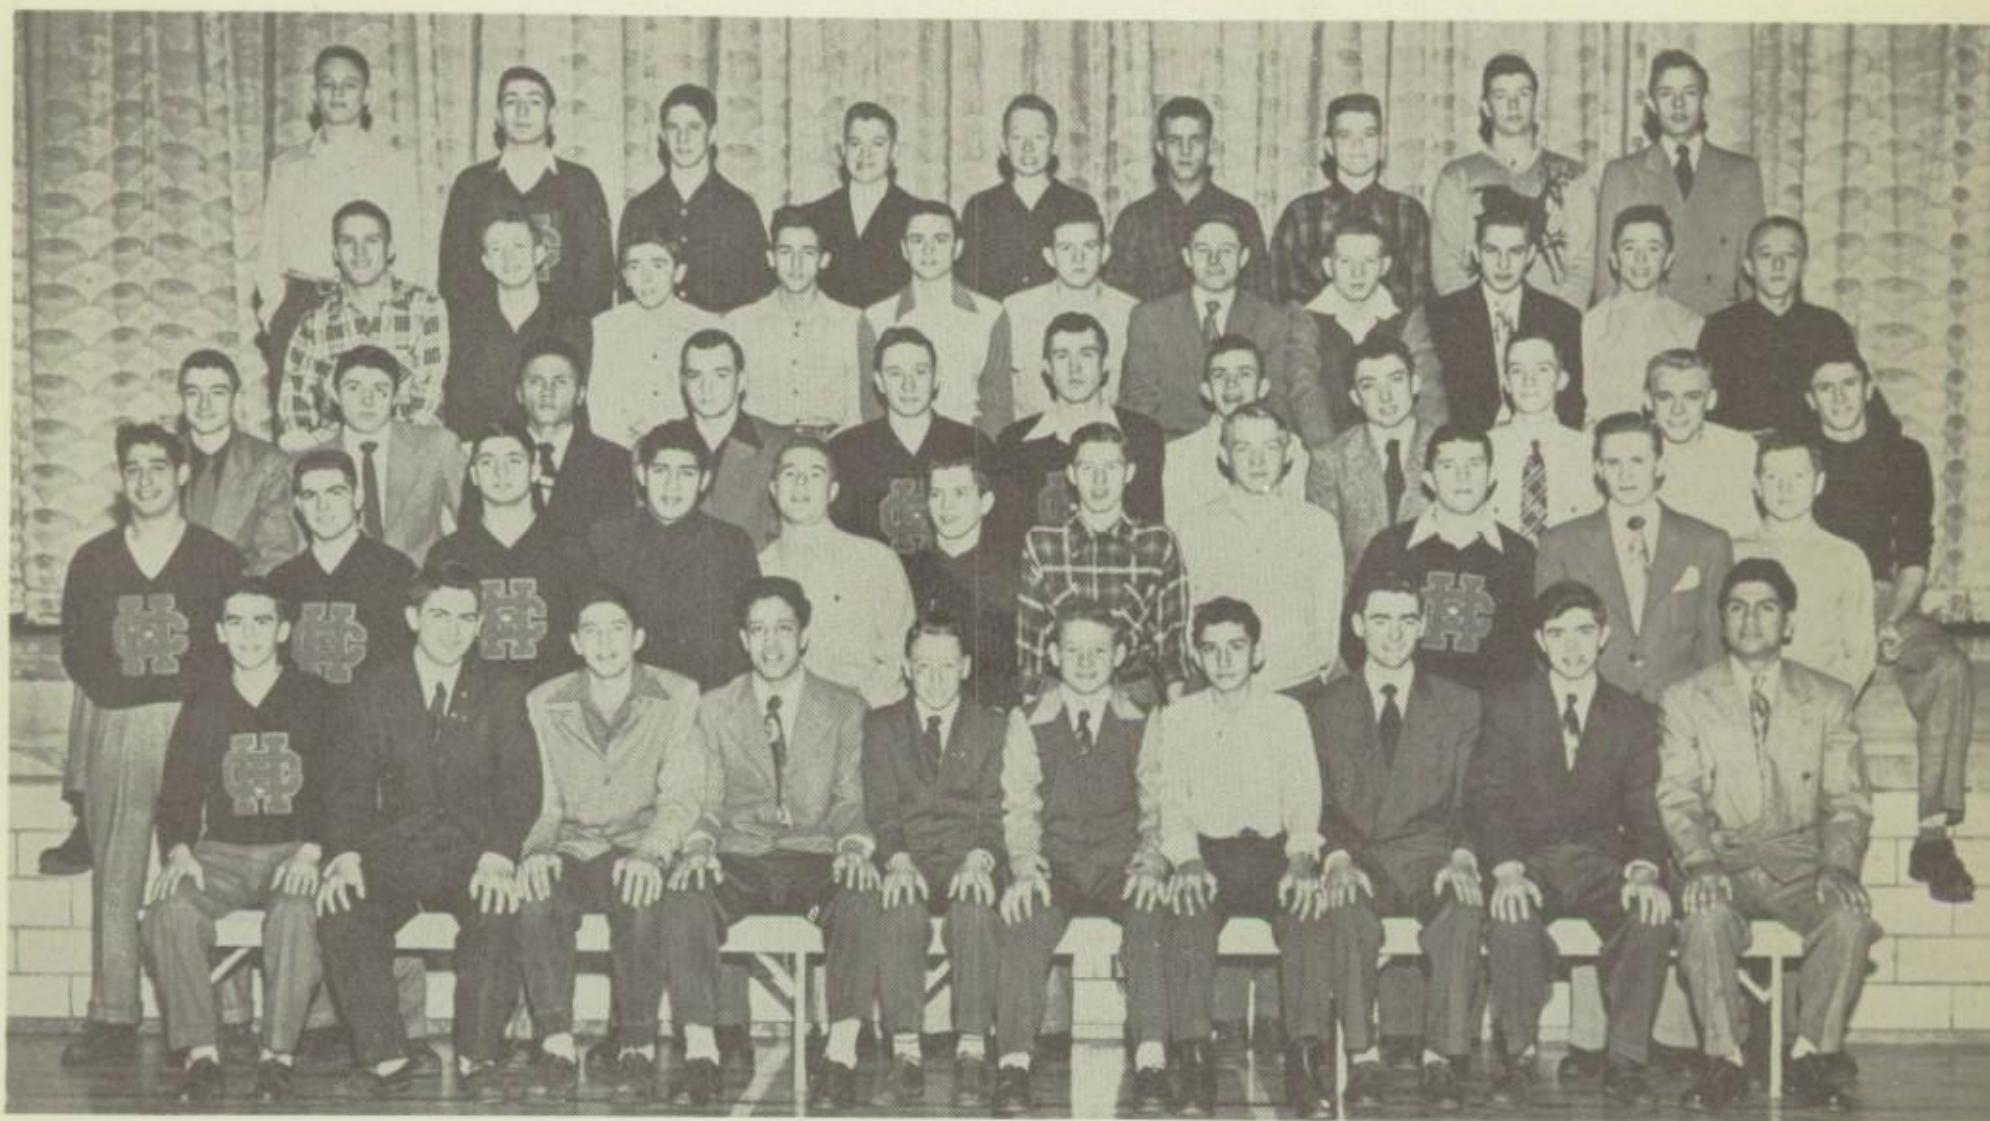

Never shall they forget those Saturday morning staff meetings winding up no earlier than 5:00 P. M.; nor the confusion resulting over copy, sketches, subscriptions, covers, and the countless details which produced this memorable bit of history in Catholic education in Sioux City.

Music Hath Its Charm

Hindered by a late start, the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, together with the mixed chorus progressed very rapidly under the able direction of Sister Mary Emile Rose, B. V. M., and Professor Szemler.

The Girls' Glee Club, numbering 150 members, have the following as officers: Mary Ann Skarnulis, president; Vonda Lee Solomon, vice president; Pauline Grogan, treasurer, and Helen Claire Hall, secretary. Section leaders are Jean Skuza, Theresa Haas, Margo Mitchell. Librarians are Doris Poches, Julie Kramper, Jane Entringer, Mary Clare Benton, Carol Ecker, and Barbara Haried.

The Boys' Glee Club, with its 60 members, chose Williard Bertrand as president; Vincent Rago, vice president; Tom Tooley, secretary; and Tom Stoup the treasurer.

A delightful program was presented by the three groups in Heelan High Auditorium, Friday evening, May 19.

The School Band

Probably the most school-minded group in school, band members have given up all of their study periods to practice. This group appeared at the basketball games and at pep rallies, to add zest and spirit to the student body. Though small in number, their enthusiasm and pep added much to school life this past year. Their 'red letter day' was May 19, when they appeared with the chorus to present a very worthwhile and highly entertaining program for the public.

Mr. Stefan Szemler is the head of the music department at Heelan High, with Vince Delahay, junior, acting as student director.

The Monogram Club, composed of all major letter-winners in the major sports, was the first club to be organized in the new school, under the direction of Coach Simonich. Their activities included cafeteria supervision, operation of the concession stand, patrol duty in the gym during athletic contests, sponsoring of social functions, such as sock dances and the highly successful Monogram dinner dance, April 20.

“The Shutter Bugs”

One of the outstanding clubs at Heelan High is the Shutterbugs. Most of the pictures used in our 1950 annual were supplied by its members. The main purpose of this organization is to learn photography and its various ramifications. Under the direction of Father Behrens, an expert in this field, and assisted by President McKelvey; Vice President Linden; Treasurer Hartz, and Secretary Cody, the Thursday night meetings have been most interesting and informative. The Shutterbugs have a beautifully equipped darkroom which is open to club members after school and on meeting nights.

Another first in the long list of new organizations this year—the Dramatics Club. "Here Comes Charlie", a farce-comedy, was their sole project for this year, but in this they demonstrated excellent ability, which ought to add to their performances in the future. This production was under the direction of Father E. Thom.

As a basis for future student councils, the student committee has shown excellent progress and spirit in their brief period of formation. It is their purpose to act as a bridge between the students and faculty and to aid in the good government of Heelan Catholic High. Jim Murray was chairman of the group.

The Crusader Club

The purpose of this organization is to aid in financing Heelan High's athletic program. Results this first year have indeed been gratifying. The officers, under the directorship of Wm. Sievers, the administration and the students wish to extend a "big thank you" to Crusader followers for their splendid cooperation and enthusiasm. Through efforts prior to opening of the football season, 1205 membership tickets were sold for Heelan High athletic events.

According to the adopted constitution, the board of directors is made up in this wise: each one of the city parishes has delegates; two from the five larger, and one from smaller parishes. At the beginning of each new school year, one delegate from each parish automatically is dropped from the board and another is appointed to replace him by the parish pastor. In the case of smaller parishes, a new representative is named each year.

The board of directors for the year 1949-50 consisted of the following gentlemen: Wm. Sievers, Claude Ziegler, Fred Sandman, Martin Pauley, Glen Beaubien, Cy McGowan, Harry Watson, James R. Flanagan, Arthur W. Smith, Earl Speckhart, Arthur Troy, L. J. Brooks, Ray Buckrey, Don Joynt, Charles Diehl and John Crowe.

Crusader members honored lettermen of Heelan High's football squad at a dinner following the close of the season, in Cathedral Hall. On this occasion Bishop Mueller presented team members with monograms. Basketball lettermen were awarded letters at a dinner in their honor Easter Monday in the high school cafeteria. The latter was also sponsored by the Crusader Club.

Our Pride and Joy

The Library Club was formed in the early fall for the purpose of helping Sister Mary Peter Claver, O. P., organize our Heelan High library. Under the leadership of their officers, Julie Kramper, Frances Mahr, Patricia Kramper, and Jean Goldsborough, thirty-three juniors and freshmen have drawn up four committees — Publicity, Display, Service, and Room. Rotating jobs every two months presents the students with the opportunity of learning the various techniques of library science. They are gaining experience in processing books — shellacking, pasting in pockets, accessioning and lettering. Besides being of great service to the school, these students are acquiring a valuable foundation in preparation for a future career as librarians.

Spanish Club

During the second semester two French clubs were formed by ambitious members of the first year French classes.

Meetings are held every third Monday during the regular class period. Members eagerly look forward to these meetings. They hope to obtain a bowing acquaintance at least with the literature, music, architecture, art, history and geography of France.

Next year the Cercle Francais plans to present skits and playlets in the native language. Occasional as these meetings are, they are welcome relief from the daily drudgery of learning vocabularies and constructions.

Sister Mary Juanito Joseph, B. V. M., is the moderator of the clubs.

French Club

Organized in early spring under the direction of Sister Mary Carol, B. V. M., the Spanish club, christened "Los Chiquitos", has for its aim "a better understanding of the Spanish language, culture and peoples with a view to arriving at greater unity with our Spanish-speaking neighbors." Meetings held twice-monthly, have featured talks on such topics as Spanish dancing, sports, and dress, exercises in pronunciation through the medium of the wire recorder, and formulating of a constitution. Officers of the club are Mary Catherine Meacham, president; Rita Ostymier, vice president; Muriel Murphy, secretary-treasurer.

Having finished a highly successful football season, the best in the history of Catholic schools in the city, Catholic again stepped into the limelight on the hard court.

Off to a good start, the Crusaders topped Sioux City East by a score of 36 to 27. Ten successive victories including a 40-38 win over S. C. Central, made them the top team of Northwest Iowa. Then came the let-down, three losses in a row. Breaking back into the winning column by trampling Sioux City East the second time 41-33, gave them the coveted city championship. Season's record shows 12 wins against 6 losses.

Hats off to Bob Curry, center, and Walt Wagner, guard, who made Honorable Mention in the state polls. Congratulations again to Bob and Walt who made the First All City Team, "Ball Hawk" Sabag, who found a berth on the Second Team, and to "Doc" Kinney who received Honorable Mention.

It Has Been A Great Year

Though we could have filled a book twice this size and then some, we, the staff of the first annual to be published by Heelan Catholic High School, consider this humble work sufficient to tell the story of a great year.

Uppermost in our mind, as we set about the task of publishing an annual, was the fact that through the generosity of the Catholics of Sioux City a million dollar, ultra-modern school was erected for the youth in and around Sioux City. Brick, mortar and steel was made possible through united effort by the Catholics of the city, and so, we have tried to keep to the theme, as you will note, in our division pages.

As all things new must be tried, so too have the faculty tried the students, and the students the faculty in our first year of existence. There were many trying, difficult days. There were decisions to be made where there were no precedents to follow. There were deeds of commission and omission. However, due to noble effort on the part of students and faculty 'On a Wing and a Prayer', we have passed the difficult crisis with colors flying.

We, the staff are grateful to have had the opportunity of presenting life at Catholic High (now Heelan High) during this first year of its existence. Should this publication be late in reaching your hands--please excuse. We had to revise the paste-ups on the first 48 pages due to the change in name from Catholic to Heelan High.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to all those who have helped in the publication of The Shield of 1950. Our thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Hollister; to Lithocraft Incorporated; the Bolstein Company; the Rocky Plate Company, and the S. K. Smith Company. Special mention should be given Larry Flood, who spent hours at the drawing board; to Jim McKelvey, our chief Shutterbug; to Tiny Stroup and Father Behrens who directed this work.

May that which is good and noble at Heelan High be kept in tact and be carried on through the years--that which is not perfect, may it be improved and perfected.

P.S. For the complete story of the 1949-50 school year consult The Shield of 1951. (Just a hint to the Alumni).
